

Saratoga Springs Schedules Patriotic Demonstration, Parade to Recruit Youths

Civic Groups, War Aides, Schools to Participate

A citywide patriotic demonstration and parade is scheduled Saturday beginning at 10 a. m. to inaugurate an intensive campaign to recruit youths from the 18-19 age group for the Army.

The demonstration was planned by the Saratoga Springs War Council with Mayor Mallory as chairman. In receipt of a letter from Sidney J. Laine, major infantry, executive officer of the Northeastern New York Recruiting District, Albany.

The parade will be a part of simultaneous parades in all cities of the State Saturday to recruit youths.

Youths of those ages now have a choice of 13 branches in which to serve, and if they enlist Saturday they may select one of these branches with the Army.

Schuylerville Marks Home Week Anniversaries

Schuylerville—Today marks the 50th anniversary of the beginning of Old Home Week in Schuylerville. The observance ended on October 11. The bread celebration embraced colorful parades, a home battle near the Saratoga Battle Monument and a general carnival spirit.

Colored troops from Fort Ethan Allen were escorted near the monument and gave concerts every day with their band. The climax of the celebration was Governor Day when the late Governor John W. Dix was the honored guest and speaker at the battle monument.

During this 50-year period state roads, concrete sidewalks, replacing the old brick walks, and the sewer system were constructed. The new Schuylerville school was built. The trolley cars were taken out of the community.

Infants died at the home on the Boston and Main Railroad there is only one.

Three business men, Charles Cheney, H. H. Millett and F. W. Bush, are in the same location now that they were 30 years ago. Personal.

Miss Helen Pleaske, Albany, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew N. Pleaske.

Miss Margaret Hughes, Schenectady, spent the weekend with her father, Hugh Hughes.

Miss A. Honora Hughes, Yonkers, was the guest of relatives here for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Funston, Schenectady, visited Mrs. Alice Funston and family yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Decker, Schenectady, were recent guests of relatives and friends in town.

BIRTH
Schuylerville—A daughter, Judith Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Butler at the Saratoga Hospital Thursday. Dr. M. D. Doby was the attending physician.

State Registration Drops; Candidates Urge Citizens Qualify at Polls

Albany (AP)—New York's two major party gubernatorial candidates, opening major Upstate campaigns this week, are expected to reiterate plans for citizens to qualify for voting to overcome the decided lag in registrations this year compared to 1940 and 1938.

Latest available registration figures for the Nov. 3 election show a decline throughout the state. In Albany, the city of Albany, registration dropped from 1940 to 1938.

Two days, Friday and Saturday, Friday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Saturday from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. (Saratoga Store Page 3).

In smaller communities, where registration is more difficult, citizens may qualify Saturday from 1 to 10 p. m.

Candidates Start Tours
Meanwhile, John J. Bennett Jr., Democratic candidate for governor, opens his major election drive with stops today at Ballston, Albany, Lockport and Niagara Falls.

The start of an entire week of Upstate campaigning, Bennett said, "The President and I are in a military decision and will be available until after the war."

Bennett has urged immediate launching of the project.

Registration Stressed
The two major party nominees and others of the gubernatorial candidates and their party leaders continued to place major emphasis on the need to register, attributing the decline in tabulations to the number of men and women in the armed forces.
