Twice the Help!

Many things people take for constipation do only half as much for them as Cascarets would do. For Cascarets are made from cascara, which any doctor will tell you acts not only on the lower bowel but the upper one as well. And it actually strengthens the muscles of the bowels. So the quick, pleasant relief Cascarets bring when you're bilious, dizzy, headachy and constipated, is lasting relief! Take a candy Cascaret tonight and see how that coated tongue clears up; how your breath is sweetened; eyes are brightened and your entire system is strengthened. 20 million boxes used yearly is proof of their popularity!

FINAL TRIBUTE TO WHITNEY PAID IN SIMPLE SERVICES

Thousands Attend Funeral in St. Bartholomew's Church, New York.

ALL WALKS OF LIFE

Polo, Financial and Racing Friends Present—Burial in Woodlawn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. — With simple dignity, the funeral of Harry Payne Whitney, financier and sportsman, was held yesterday morning in St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church before a congregation of more than a thousand friends in all walks of life, among them leaders in finance, politics, society, the turf and other sports, and also jockeys, trainers and other racing employes. There were no honorary pallbearers.

The Episcopal service was interspersed with the singing of old hymns such as "I Heard a Voice From Heaven," "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand," "Sun of My Soul" and "Fight the Good Fight," besides renditions of Handel's "Largo" and the Twenty-third Psalm. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody of Groton School, who was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Robert Norwood, rector of the church.

The silver-handled coffin, of dark wood, was blanketed with orchids, lilies of the valley and yellow roses. The floral pieces with which the chancel was banked came from friends of Mr. Whitney in many stations of life. The family declined to make their names public, but the largest piece, a flower-covered horseshoe of ferns and Autumn leaves, was the tribute of Mr. Whitney's racing employes.

A throng gathered in front of the church and waited in the rain as the cortege departed for Woodlawn Cemetery, where burial took place privately.

Relatives Present.

The members of the family at the service were Mr. Whitney's widow, the Former Gertrude Vanderbilt, and their children, Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, Mrs. G. Macculloch Miller and Mrs. Barnabe McKee Henry.

Others included Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. John Hay Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hay, former Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly, Mrs. Henry White and the Countess Szechenyi.

Also Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Burden, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Webb, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood Field, Mrs. Sherman Rabbit, Mrs. Graham Fair Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schieffelin, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gassaway Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Evart E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Blake L. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Burden, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Burden and Mrs. Vanderbilt Church.

Among the prominent business, political and financial leaders present were George F. Baker, George B. Baker, Jr., Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams, Joseph E. Widener, Charles H. Sabin, ex-Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, R. Fulton Cutting and Colonel Lewis Cass Ledyard.

Elihu Root, in whose law offices Mr. Whitney as a young man was registered for a time as a student and who was a lifelong friend, sent his condolences from Clinton, N. Y.

Some of Mr. Whitney's old-time polo associates were there, among them Devereux Milburn and Lawrence, who teamed with him in the 1909 "Big Four," which brought the International Polo Cup back from England, and Louis V. Stoddard.

There were many delegations from Mr. Whitney's clubs, institutions he had aided and other organizations, including the American Museum of Natural History, the Guaranty Trust Company, the Groton School, the Jockey Club, the Meadowbrook Club, the Piping Rock Club, the Racquet and Tennis Club and the Saratoga Association.

Present also were house servants, members of the crew of Mr. Whitney's yacht, office employes, and workers in his racing stables, including Leonard Ellis, Negro workman, well-known Whitney jockey.

FUNERAL OF GARRISON

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 — A requiem mass for Edward H. Garrison, famous jockey, whom the sporting world knew as Snapper Garrison was offered at 9 a. m. today in St. Teresa's Roman Catholic church, Classon Avenue and Sterling Place, Brooklyn.

Burial took place in Holy Cross cemetery. The body lay in state at the chapel, 88 Lefferts Place, yesterday, and many sportsmen and former associates of Mr. Garrison paid a tribute of respect.

Tea Table Chat

Mrs. H. S. Ludlow, North Broadway, was luncheon hostess today for the three house guests of Mrs. D. Walter Mabee, who are here from Providence, R. I. Invited guests were Mrs. F. V. Husey, Mrs. Mable Comstock and Mrs. F. H. Perkins, of Providence; Mrs. Edward M. Angell, Glens Falls; Mrs. Charles Warring, Amsterdam; Mrs. Seth W. Morton, Albany; Mrs. Grace V. Hough, Ballston Spa, and Mrs. D. Walter Mabee, Mrs. E. W. Marvin, Mrs. Stuart M. Don, Mrs. Roland Smith, Mrs. Federico Pohndorf, Mrs. James S. Woolley, Mrs. Milton K. Huppuch, Mrs. Clarence B. Kilmer, Mrs. Douglas C. Morarta, Mrs. Daisy G. McQueen, Mrs. Agnes A. W. Pettes, Mrs. John K. Walbridge, Mrs. Luther A. Walt and Mrs. William J. Morrissey.

I notice that Mr. and Mrs. John A. Slade of Chestwood, have returned from a few days' visit in New York.

An enjoyable dinner party of last evening was that given by Miss Dorothy Bresee at the Cookie Jar, her guests being Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Butler, Miss Hermoine Shafer, Miss Edith L. Tarrant, Edgar D. Starbuck, Charles Fink and John F. Baer.

Mrs. A. A. Trim, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, who was to have entertained the members of her executive board tomorrow evening at her home, 137 Lake avenue, has postponed the event until Monday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Walton B. Guy of 143 Spring street, were being congratulated by their friends today on their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary. Dr. and Mrs. Guy have been Saratoga Springs residents for 36 years. Dr. Guy has also been in business for forty-four years. He is one of the oldest professional men in the city in length of service, and is still able and hearty and in active business daily.

Mrs. Francis L. Towne, mother of Dr. G. Scott Towne, J. Blaine Towne, and Mrs. Rowland C. Lamb, arrived last night from Pittsfield, Mass., and is visiting at the home of Mrs. Lamb, 16 Clark street. She intends to go on to Iowa later in the Winter.

Among the larger Hallowe'en parties this week will be tonight's event of Saratoga Lodge of Elks, held in the club house in Woodlawn avenue for members and their ladies.

Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution and other patriotic organizations will be interested in the sale of the historic Marshall house at Schuylerville to Kenneth Bullard of Schuylerville. The sale is announced elsewhere in The Saratogian today. The Marshall house is the scene of interest annually for large numbers of tourists interested in the Revolutionary War.

Hallowe'en parties will be held in the residence halls of Skidmore College on Friday evening. However, on account of the All College Dance on the following night these will be very informal and elaborate entertainments have been dispensed with. The East Hall and some of the other buildings teas on Thursday afternoon will take the place of the parties.

Dean Margaret Bridgman and Miss Jane Stearns, assistant to the Dean at Skidmore College, have returned from a visit to Smith and Mt. Holyoke Colleges.

JEAN McGREGOR.

HUMANE SOCIETY ACTIVITIES

Plans for improving the financial organization of the Saratoga county department of the Mohawk and Hudson River Humane Society were discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the society in the offices in the Walbridge building this morning.

The report of Superintendent William A. Hennessey showed that 18 complaints had been received in the children's department during the last month, involving 29 children, of which 10 were boys and 19 were girls. The charges included neglect by father, improper guardianship, lost or strayed, without home, endangering morals, disorderly and unruly child, application to remove child from institution, runaway child, destitute and miscellaneous.

All the complaints were sustained and the prosecution of two adults resulted in one conviction. The prosecution of one minor resulted in one conviction. One case is pending settlement, sentence was suspended in another, 16 defendants were advised or warned, one child was adopted by a family, another was warned by the court, one father was ordered to pay for the support of his children, one child was returned home, three cases were referred to public welfare officers, one was referred to another society.

A total of 39 complaints were received in the animal department, involving 65 animals. The charges included sick and suffering, general neglect and cruelty, horses overloaded, without horses, suffering from exposure and miscellaneous. All the complaints were sustained. 53 animals were humanely put to death, one animal was suspended from labor, 39 owners were advised or warned, homes were found for five animals and two cats were rescued from trees.

During the month Superintendent Hennessey conducted investigations in Saratoga Springs, Stillwater, Milton, Malta, Wilton and Corinth.

MAIL PILOT KILLED.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 30. (AP)—C. O. McGuire of Cincinnati, Ohio, a mail pilot for the Embry Riddle company of Cincinnati, Ohio, was killed instantly when his plane crashed six miles west of Brookston early today.

SKIDMORE SOCIAL YEAR OPENS WITH DANCE SATURDAY

Skidmore College will open its social year with its first formal dance, "All College," Saturday. On Saturday afternon there will be a tea dance from four to six in the ballroom of the Casino and in the evening the formal dance from 8 until 12. The Lord Jeff Serenaders, an eleven-piece orchestra from Amherst College will play for both dances. This orchestra won popularity at the Old Mill Tavern on the Cape where it played during the summer.

Because of the crowded conditions at the dance last year, the attendance has been limited to three hundred couples, 200 of which will be upperclassmen and 100 freshmen. A program of 12 dances has been arranged and special refreshments are being planned.

Miss Virginia B. Koops of West Newton, Mass., chairman of social committee, and her assistant, Miss Polly Middlebrook of South Orange, N. J., are in charge of arrangements for the dance and Miss Mary Pearson of Rutherford, N. J., is in charge of refreshments.

Lecture-Recital Tonight.

Skidmore College, extends a cordial invitation to all music lovers to attend the lecture-recital on British composers which will be given by Margaret Deneke, chairmaster of Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford, England, at 8 o'clock tonight in Skidmore College Hall.

Sunday Vespers.

The vesper speaker for Sunday, November 2, will be Dr. Wendell P. Bowman who is quite familiar to Skidmore as its vesper speaker. His daughter was a member of last year's freshman class and he has made many visits to the college.

Dr. Keeler is the minister of the Warburton Avenue Baptist Church of Yonkers and has always been one of the most popular of Skidmore's vesper speakers.

SERVICES CONTINUED

Last night at the Grace Church of the Nazarene, Woodlawn avenue and Van Dam street, an interested congregation listened to the Rev. Gene Phillips, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene at Binghamton. Mr. Phillips is preaching in the place of the Rev. H. V. Miller, who was called away because of the death of President Floyd Nease, of Eastern Nazarene College.

Mr. Phillips' theme was "Sin in the Heart," based on Genesis 4:7. Vividly he portrayed the dangers of sin in the life of a man in the heart. In part he said, "We are not to blame for the presence of sin in our hearts, but we are to blame if we allow it to stay there. If people in Saratoga realized the dreadful calamities and dire results of sin, not only in the present but in the future, they would be alarmed."

These services will continue each evening, except Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock. Special musical numbers will be given each evening by the Bishop Sisters.

CANDIDATES TO SPEAK

Professor Robert P. Carroll, candidate for governor, and Benedict Haskell, candidate for state senator from this district on the Law Preservation ticket, will be speakers at a meeting in the Emanuel Baptist church, Nott Terrace, near State street, at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Such a help for dishes
—makes pots and pans shine too

WASHING dishes is no work at all with Rinso! It's a joy to see the way they soak spotless in creamy Rinso suds. All you need to do is rinse them in hot water; they dry clear and sparkling by themselves. No wiping needed!

Cup for cup, Rinso gives twice as much suds as lightweight, puffed-up soaps—because it's granulated and compact. Rich, soapy, lasting suds, even in the hardest water. No grit. Marvelous suds for washing out bathtubs, basins, sinks. Makes all cleaning easier.

And for the weekly wash . . . Rinso is the choice of millions. It soaks clothes whiter than they can be scrubbed. Get the BIG package.
