GRADUATION

Bollston Spa High School Has Largest Class In History

This year's graduating class of the Bollston Spa High School has reached the size of 106. The largest graduating class ever graduated from the school was in 1936, when the number was 75. The increase in the size of the class is due to the fact that more students are entering the high school.

The graduating class is divided into 10 grades, with 10 students in each grade. The grades are named after the months of the year, with January being the first grade and December being the last grade.

The class is composed of students from all parts of the town, and the majority of them are from the Bollston area.

The class is divided into four sections, with each section having its own organization and activities. The sections are named after the months of the school year, with September being the first section and June being the last section.

The class is presented in a graduation ceremony, which is held in the school auditorium. The ceremony is attended by family members, friends, and members of the community.

The class is presented in a variety of ways, including giving speeches, performances, and musical presentations. The class is also presented through a slide show of their activities and achievements during their high school years.

The class is presented in a spirit of unity and togetherness, and it is a time for the students to look back on their high school years and reflect on their future.

The class is presented in a tradition of excellence, and it is a time for the students to focus on their goals and aspirations for the future.
