Can't Be Settled by Board of Trustees—Reward of $100 Still Unawarded—Expense Budget Adopted.

(Given to The Saratogian on April 27, 1915)

Fire Chief Michael J. O'Connell, chairman of the board of trustees, at the Saratoga Springs Board of Trustees meeting today, submitted an item for the adoption of an expense budget. The board approved the proposal.

When the meeting opened Monday, Mayor E. F. Butler introduced Mrs. S. A. Mahoney, who has been a member of the board of trustees since it was organized in 1911. She received a standing ovation, and the mayor complimented her on her work in the past.

B粗STON LAKE PEN TIES FOR 2ND PLACE

The annual pen and ink drawing contest was held this week at the Ballston Lake School. The contest was open to all students in the school, and a number of excellent entries were received.

The prize for first place was awarded to Mary L. Johnson, a student in the fourth grade. Mary's drawing was a beautiful portrayal of a landscape scene, with trees, flowers, and a stream in the foreground.

BALLSTON LAKE PEN TIES FOR 2ND PLACE

The prize for second place was awarded to John B. Johnson, also a student in the fourth grade. John's drawing was a detailed picture of a house in the country, with a garden in front.

NEWS OF CORINTH.

Corinth, April 27—John D. Cotton, a Corinthian, has been appointed postmaster. He is the first postmaster in Corinth in many years.

The meeting of the village board was held this week, and the following actions were taken:

1. The appointment of John D. Cotton as postmaster was approved.
2. A petition was read asking for the installation of a sidewalk on the village green.
3. The board approved the purchase of new furniture for the village hall.

The meeting adjourned.
