THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

THE QUESTION BOX

From the beginning of the year, 1943, letters have been published in this column about the care of women, the care of children, and the care of the elderly. It is hoped that the public will be interested in this subject and that the column will serve as a means of communication between the public and the editorial board of the Post.

1. A woman who has been married for 20 years and who is now 40 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
2. A man who has been married for 25 years and who is now 45 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.
3. A woman who has been married for 30 years and who is now 50 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
4. A man who has been married for 35 years and who is now 55 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.

THE QUESTION BOX

1. A woman who has been married for 20 years and who is now 40 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
2. A man who has been married for 25 years and who is now 45 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.
3. A woman who has been married for 30 years and who is now 50 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
4. A man who has been married for 35 years and who is now 55 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.

THE QUESTION BOX

1. A woman who has been married for 20 years and who is now 40 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
2. A man who has been married for 25 years and who is now 45 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.
3. A woman who has been married for 30 years and who is now 50 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
4. A man who has been married for 35 years and who is now 55 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.

THE QUESTION BOX

1. A woman who has been married for 20 years and who is now 40 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
2. A man who has been married for 25 years and who is now 45 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.
3. A woman who has been married for 30 years and who is now 50 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
4. A man who has been married for 35 years and who is now 55 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.

THE QUESTION BOX

1. A woman who has been married for 20 years and who is now 40 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
2. A man who has been married for 25 years and who is now 45 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.
3. A woman who has been married for 30 years and who is now 50 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
4. A man who has been married for 35 years and who is now 55 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.

THE QUESTION BOX

1. A woman who has been married for 20 years and who is now 40 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
2. A man who has been married for 25 years and who is now 45 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.
3. A woman who has been married for 30 years and who is now 50 years old. She has children and she is interested in the care of children.
4. A man who has been married for 35 years and who is now 55 years old. He has children and he is interested in the care of children.