A. R. CARPENTER, OF SCHUYLERVILLE, DEAD

News of Schuylerville.

Schuylerville, June 6-Rev. Mr. Alden M. Webster, a well known and respected citizen of Schuylerville, died Monday morning at his home here after a lingering illness of several months' duration. Mr. Webster was born July 27, 1821, in Niskayuna, N. Y., and was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ashbel Webster.

Mr. Webster was married to Miss Elizabeth B. Ives, of Niskayuna, in 1848, and had two children, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Webster, of Schuylerville, and Mrs. J. C. Webster, of Niskayuna.

Mr. Webster was graduated from Williams College in 1842, and entered the ministry, and was for many years a member of the church at Schuylerville.

He was a member of the Schuylerville School Board for many years, and was also a member of the Schuylerville Savings Bank.

Services were held at the church on Monday afternoon, and interment took place in the West Cemetery.

HINTS TO FARMERS
FROM UNCLE SAM'S AGRICULTURAL DEPT

Washington, June 4.—Under the provisions of the Agriculture Act of 1902, the Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Wilson, has published a series of bulletins giving practical advice to farmers on the growing of certain crops during the current season. These bulletins are available at the post offices and are free to the public.

The bulletins cover the following crops: corn, wheat, oats, rye, barley, and soybeans.

Among the topics discussed in the bulletins are: the selection of varieties, the proper time for planting, the use of fertilizers, and the precautions to be taken to prevent diseases and pests.

In addition to the bulletins on the above crops, Mr. Wilson has also published a bulletin on the care of livestock, which includes information on the breeding, feeding, and health of different species.

The bulletins are available at the post offices and are free to the public.

The Unfailing Home Remedy

FUrNtAL AT SCHUYLERVILLE.

Saratoga Reformers ready to meet of the society at Schuylerville, on Monday, June 10. The meeting will be held in the Schuylerville Institute, and will be addressed by Mr. John M. Sessions, a leading reformer of this county.

The society was organized in 1860, and has been active in the work of reform ever since.

The meeting will be opened with prayer, and will be followed by a brief address by Mr. Sessions, and a discussion of the society's work.

The meeting will be open to the public, and all are invited to attend.

“The Unfailing Home Remedy”

When breakfast has to be prepared in a hurry.

When something appropriate is asked at the last moment.

When the hot kitchen is calling you.

Whenever the opposite calls for something delicious, good and nourishing...
