Drought Fails to Dim Beauty, Brilliance of Saratoga Flower Show

THE COTTON BOLL became the symbol of the annual flower show held here Sunday at the Farmington Country Club, Woodbine Avenue and Main Street. The show was sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Farmington Country Club and was attended by many of the town's prominent ladies.

The show was the largest and most successful of its kind in the history of the Farmington Country Club. The floral arrangements were on display in the main dining room of the club.

The judges were Mrs. M. E. Smith, Mrs. F. W. B. Smith, Mrs. M. E. B. Smith, and Mrs. M. E. B. Green. The winners were as follows:

First Prize
- Miss Joubert
- J. H. Ferguson

Second Prize
- Miss Joubert
- J. H. Ferguson

Third Prize
- Miss Joubert
- J. H. Ferguson

Honorable Mention
- Mrs. M. E. Smith
- Mrs. F. W. B. Smith
- Mrs. M. E. B. Smith
- Mrs. M. E. B. Green

commended
- Mrs. M. E. Smith
- Mrs. F. W. B. Smith
- Mrs. M. E. B. Smith
- Mrs. M. E. B. Green

Experience Teaches Effective Beauty Tactics

Jean McGregor

Tea Table Chat

Club Notes

Social Activities

Jean McGregor's

Tea Table Chat - Club Notes - Social Activities

- Mrs. W. C. H. Brannock, chairman of the tea table, made a special effort to make sure that the tea table was well supplied with refreshments. The table was decorated with beautiful flowers and was set with fine china.

- Mrs. W. C. H. Brannock, chairman of the tea table, made a special effort to make sure that the tea table was well supplied with refreshments. The table was decorated with beautiful flowers and was set with fine china.

- Mrs. W. C. H. Brannock, chairman of the tea table, made a special effort to make sure that the tea table was well supplied with refreshments. The table was decorated with beautiful flowers and was set with fine china.

- Mrs. W. C. H. Brannock, chairman of the tea table, made a special effort to make sure that the tea table was well supplied with refreshments. The table was decorated with beautiful flowers and was set with fine china.