Title Insurance A Small Price For Such Protection

EVERY land-owner, purchaser, or investor in mortgages should insist upon title insurance in all real estate transactions. It is the only safeguard. The only secure title is the insured title because "you know you own it if the title is insured".

Investigate this practical realty safeguard. Let this $42,000,000 Company protect your property interests. For one small premium we will assume all risks.

All title examinations are made by competent real estate attorneys in our section who are familiar with local conditions
