

SCHUYLERVILLE

MANY TOURISTS
VISIT COMMUNITY

SCHUYLERVILLE, Aug. 9.—(Special)—Many tourists from various places are passing through the vicinity daily, enjoying the beautiful scenery and historic places. The Saratoga Hotel, located on Prospect hill, as well as the Marshall House, the Schuyler Manor, the place of General Burgoyne's surrender at the south end of the village, Fort Hardy and other important points of Revolutionary historical interest are among places visited. Tourists who stop in the village, overnight, find good roadways leading to Saratoga Springs and other nearby towns and cities. Local hotels are entertaining a number of summering guests. Many comment upon the beauty of the locality and appreciate its historic features to the full.

Charles Egan of Troy was a recent village business caller.

Miss Esther Carlson and Miss Ethel Carlson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Carlson, Pearl street, are spending two weeks in Hartford, Conn. visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bell and son, of Montclair, N. J., and Mr. W. D. Bell and Wendell Bell, of Westfield, N. Y., were weekend guests of Dr. M. D. Duly Jones. They are staying at home, corner of Church and Ferry streets.

Superior O. W. Closson was a Corinth visitor Tuesday.

The street department is scraping the roadway on Church street, making that highway a better one for passage.

School Election.
Thirty-eight taxpayers of school district No. 1, town of Saratoga, cast ballots at the school election for trustees in the school auditorium yesterday, the election starting at 12 m., and continuing until 4 p. m. The candidate selected for the ticket at the nomination Tuesday evening was J. W. Cummins.

Former Superintendent of Schools E. E. Hinman and Mrs. Maude J. Noyes, clerk, are trustees of the Board of Education, presided on the election board.

There was no excitement whatever in connection with the election. Among recent Saratoga Springs visitors were Daniel J. Falvey, John H. Hughes, Israel Son, Dr. F. W. Wilson and Harry Phillips. Grand Picnic held 15.

Recent Hill Grange will hold a ## picnic at Lake Sunnyside Wednesday, August 15. A picnic dinner will be served at 1 o'clock, daylight saving time. All Grangers and their families are invited, and also the non-Granger friends.

Mrs. Robert Hitley and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Hitley's parents, have returned to their home in Brooklyn. Margaret and John Hitley, who have been visiting Mrs. Hitley's parents, are spending their vacation with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Quilly of Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Moore of Troy, former residents, are visiting friends in town.

VICTORY MILLS

A thimble party was held at the home of Mrs. M. H. Brown and Mrs. William Seaman on Gates avenue Tuesday afternoon. The home was nicely decorated for the occasion. Cards and games were played. The following were awarded: guest prizes, Mrs. Ray Marshall, first prize, Mrs. A. Sullivan. The out of town guests were Mrs. Bertha Stanton, Mrs. Rachel Young and Mrs. Robert Walbert. All of the guests were very much enjoyed. The guests left at 8:30 p. m.

The attention of the public, including all summer visitors, is again called to the hours during which the playgrounds of the city are under supervision.

Harmon Field, located at the rear of No. 1 school, is open from 9 to 11 and from 2 to 5 under the direction of Miss Louise Horton.

The Recreation Field, located between Lake avenue and Caroline street, five blocks north of the track, is open from 9 to 11, 2 to 5 and 6:30 to 8:30 under the direction of Miss Eleanor Westfall and Coach Kelly.

At Recreation Field are located eight tennis courts, two baseball diamonds, an outdoor basketball court, croquet court, two standard horseshoe pitching courts and other entertainment features.

Both playgrounds are also supplied with swings, slides and boxes for the children to enjoy. The supervisors of both playgrounds are anxious to care for the recreational needs of all.

"Send or bring your children to the playgrounds," Coach Kelly invited the parents and visitors of the city.

The following Recreation Field carnivals are open for enrollment.

Senior tennis—ages 12-15 inclusive.

Midget croquet—for children under 12.

Junior croquet—for girls and boys 12 to 15 inclusive.

Enrollment may be made with Mr. Kelly at the field.
